“Responsibility to yourself means refusing to let others do your thinking, talking, and naming for you; it means learning to respect and use your own brains and instincts; hence, grappling with hard work.” - Adrienne Rich (May 16, 1929 - March 27, 2012)

“All young people, regardless of sexual orientation or identity, deserve a safe and supportive environment in which to achieve their full potential.” - Harvey Milk (May 22, 1930 - November 27, 2978)

“A book is really like a lover. It arranges itself in your life in a way that is beautiful.” - Maurice Sendak (June 10, 1928 - May 8, 2012)

How to Know If It Is Time to Leave Your Job - Thursday, May 18th 6:30pm-8pm.

A free workshop focused on professional growth by Kim Geil, PHD. Learn five powerful strategies in this interactive workshop to help you figure out the answer to that critical question "Should I stay or should I go?" Because life is too short to be trapped in an unfulfilling job!

Queer Art & Wine Fundraiser at LLACE: Art of Romaine Brooks - Saturday, May 27, 6pm - 8pm.

Cherie Gordon will present a two hour art showing and talk of 12 oil reproductions on canvas and 12 copies of Symbolist drawings on graphite paper, by Romaine Brooks (1874-1970), an American painter who worked mostly in Paris and Capri. Brooks specialized in portraiture, using a subdued tonal palette keyed to the color gray, ignoring contemporary artistic trends such as Cubism and Fauvism. Non-alcoholic beverages, wine and appetizers will be provided. Please contact Cherie at pucks.den@gmail.com or Lavender Library at info@lavenderlibrary.com.

Children's Book Launch Party: When You Look Out the Window by Gayle Pitman Ph.D., Illustrated by Christopher Lyles - Saturday, June 10th, 12pm - 2pm

When You Look Out the Window tells the story of Phyllis Lyon and Del Martin, one of San Francisco's most well-known and politically active lesbian couples. Describing the view from Phyllis and Del's window, this book shows how one couple's activism transformed their community — and had ripple effects throughout the world. Come for a fun storytime and party!
